General terms and conditions of business (brokerage terms) of Wolfsburg Wirtschaft und Marketing GmbH

1. General

The terms shall apply to all bookings via the Deskline by feratel booking system to the extent that no specific regulations which have to be notified to the customer in a written booking confirmation have been agreed.

2. Contractual relationships

Wolfsburg Wirtschaft und Marketing GmbH (hereinafter referred to as WMG) organises overnight accommodation and other tourism services between the client (hereinafter referred to as guest) and the accommodation company. All contracts shall become effective directly and exclusively between guest and the accommodation company in question.

WMG has been authorised by the accommodation company to accept the bookings.

Organisation of the accommodation company shall be free of charge for guest.

3. Binding bookings

Bookings shall be binding as a matter of principle. Guest and accommodation company shall be bound by the valid general terms and conditions of business of the accommodation company in question to the extent that this has been agreed.

Reference is made to the fact that a statutory right of revocation does not accrue in booking of a room according to the rules concerning remote trade transactions.

Conclusion of the accommodation contract by confirmation of the booking obligates Guest to perform the contract, regardless of the duration for which the contract is concluded. This shall apply even if the room is not made use of. If the room is not used, the expenditure saved by the host as well as the income from other use of the room shall be offset.

The accommodation company engages to provide the room which has been reserved and to render the agreed services.

4. Amendments of the contract and cancellations

Amendments to the contract and cancellations shall require written form. The cancellation conditions of the hotel in question shall apply. In addition, amendments to the contract, re-bookings and cancellation can only take place by mutual agreement with the accommodation company.

5. Arrival and departure

Please observe the arrival and departure times stated on the booking confirmation. By request, earlier arrival and later departure can be agreed with the accommodation company.

If you arrive after 18.00 hours, please notify the accommodation company in advance. If you arrive later (after 18:00 hours), the accommodation company shall be entitled to sell the room to others to the extent that it is not a question of a guaranteed booking.

6. Portrayal and selection of the accommodation companies

The descriptions of services and accommodation portrayed via Deskline by feratel shall be a non-binding offer. The accommodation company in question shall be responsible for the contents. Guest accepts the fact that the contents in question can contain errors or that the company in question has possibly not yet updated its information.

The descriptions of content and accommodation become binding in the form in which an effective contract between the hotel and guest is concluded.
